MERRICK MATTER UP

Progable That an Investigation Will be Held.

Guthrie, O. T., Feb. 25 .- Three physiclans appointed by Governor Ferguson today, made the regular marterly examination of the Oklahoma Sanitarium at Norman. This exhaumination is reuired by jaw and the physicians are Drs. E. H. Cooke, Watenga; B. P. Hamilton, Shaw-nee, and J. W. Werner, Newkirk. Two of these men were on the committee making the report causing the retirement of lot. Winker from active management of the sanitarium. A report will be made this week. Following this will be the report of the legislative investigating com mittee. Comparison of the two reports will be interesting for one will be by phy scians and the other legislators. The hist unrierly report showed that the in-stitution was in good condition at that time and the forthcoming report will pos-ably show that conditions are the same. TRIED TO EVADE OFFICER

Said He Traded for Horses With Indians.

Lawton, O. T., Feb. 25.-Frank Canbee narrested upon the charge of stealing The arrest was made under circumstances so sensational that most of the citizens of Walter were out, gathered in groups about the two-story residence of R. E. Miller, the proprietor of a general merchandise store of the town,

Frank Canton went to the house at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Miller came to the door and the officer courteously explained his mission there. He showed that he was there with a criminal warrant and consequently had a right to search the house. Miller protested and said that no man had a right to come

"Then," said Mr. Canton, "you will have objections to a search being made of But Miller, who by the way, was a leputy sheriff under Sheriff Painter, did have very strengous objections. "You can't come in here, he said. "Yes I can," said the officer. "Under these circumstances I would have the right to break down your doors, you know that as well as I do. And I believe you acquainted well enough with me to we that I'm coming in. So I want no re talk. Step aside." With that the officer went in. He went first to the kitchen. As he started to enter Miller struck at him. That was his only blow. Frank caught his wrist and arrested him right there for inter-fering with an officer in the performance of his duty. Miller was then taken away and placed under $400 bond. Immediately afterward the officer started back to the house. He carefully searched each room, but without result. He was satisfied, however, that his man was
